ANNUAL SAVING OF PREMIUM ON EACH £100 ASSURED.

THE Public are invited to examine the advantages and economy of the system of "Minimum Premiums" introduced by this Society, whereby Policies are issued at Premiums from one-third to one-sixth lower than their ORDINARY PREMIUMS.

The diagram on the left shows the Annual Saving by opening a Policy for 100*l.* on this plan in preference to the ordinary one. For example—

At age 45, the Ordinary Participation Premium for 100*l.* is 3*l.* 16s. 3*d.*; the Minimum is 2*l.* 18s. 8*d.*; the difference being 17s. 7*d.*, as the scale indicates.

The diagram on the right shows the increased amount assured by expending the same Premium on a Minimum Policy in preference to an ordinary one. For example—

At age 25, the Ordinary Participation Premium for 100*l.* (2*l.* 6*s.* 5*d.*) would assure, on the Minimum Plan, 145*l.*, as the Scale indicates.

For a full Table of the Minimum Premiums, and an explanation of the principle on which they have been calculated, IMPORTANT POSTAL REGULATION.

LETTERS CONTAINING COIN.

Since the Appendix went to Press the following important Regulation has been received, and is now acted on, viz. :—

“ On and from the 1st May, 1863, and thenceforward, the Regulations now in force regarding the compulsory registration of letters containing coin will be altered and extended. On and from the date in question, the practice of charging a double registration fee of Eightpence, in addition to the postage, on letters containing coin which may be posted without being registered, will not be confined as now to the London Office, but will be extended to all letters containing coin (Foreign and Colonial letters excepted) passing through every Head Post Office. Head Postmasters must carefully collect together all such letters and register them, and treat them in every respect as registered letters, charging them with a double registration fee of Eightpence, in addition to the postage.”

P R E F A C E.

THE Publishers, in placing in the hands of the Public the present Edition of the DIRECTORY, have again to tender their grateful acknowledgments for the uninterrupted patronage bestowed during the long period of Thirty-six years. The present volume has been prepared with an anxious endeavour to insure correctness, to attain which every possible care has been taken; and the Publishers can with confidence recommend it as a safe and correct guide to the business places and private residences of the many thousand names embraced therein.

The Publishers, having deemed it expedient to revise the Map, made the necessary arrangements for this purpose, and their endeavours in this direction, although attended with great expense, have resulted in presenting a Map of the City as a worthy accompaniment to the Directory. A very cursory glance will show how extensive has been the revision, and the Publishers hesitate not to say that it is the best Map of its size published.

The Publishers, looking to the importance of the Western Suburb of Hillhead and surrounding District, have, in addition to the Suburban List usually published, been induced to arrange a Street Directory, which will be found inserted in the General Street Directory of Glasgow, according to the respective names of the Streets, Terraces, Crescents, Places, &c. These additional Lists in connection with the increase of Names and other matter in the Appendix, have considerably enlarged the size of the Directory as compared with last year's issue, thereby enhancing its value, and that without additional cost to the Public.

The Publishers beg to tender their thanks to the Gentlemen connected with the Local Institutions of the City, as well as to the Officers attached to the various Volunteer Forces, for their kindness and promptitude in correcting the various lists, which give to the volume a peculiar value.

For Names too late for insertion in their proper places, General Index, List of Volunteer Forces, Commission, Interest, and Masonic Tables, see beginning of Directory.

 Copies of the Map may be had of Messrs. Murray and Son, 49' Buchanan Street done up in a Neat Case, Price One Shilling, or Mounted on Cloth, Price One Shilling and Sixpence.

ALMANAC AND TIDE TABLE.

FROM JUNE 1863, TILL JUNE, 1864.

The daily rising and falling of the waters of the ocean are, in general, denominated Tides. The rising is called the Flood, or Flux; and when it ceases to rise, High Water. The falling is called the Ebb, or Reflux; and when it ceases to fall, it is said to be Low Water. The interval between the times of High, and Low Water is called a Tide.

The Tides are produced by the attraction of the sun and moon, principally that of the latter object. The cohesion of fluids being much less than that of solid bodies, they more easily yield to the power of gravity; in consequence of which the waters immediately below the moon are drawn up in a protuberance, producing a full tide, or what is commonly called High Water, at the spot where it happens. According to this theory, you would imagine that we should have full tide only once in twenty-four hours, that is, every time that we were below the moon; while we find that we have two tides in the course of twenty-four hours, and that it is High Water with us and with our antipodes at the same time.

This opposite tide is rather more difficult to explain than that which is drawn up beneath the moon. In order to render the question more simple, let us suppose the earth to be everywhere covered by the ocean, as in the following figure:

M is the moon, A B C D the earth. Now, the waters, on the surface of the earth about A being more attracted than in any other part, will be elevated, the attraction of the moon at B and C being less; but still it will be greater there than at D, which is the part most distant from the moon.

The body of the earth will therefore be drawn away from the waters at D, leaving a protuberance similar to that at A: so that the tide, A, is produced by the waters receding from the earth, and the tide, D, by the earth receding from the waters.

The influence of the sun on the tides is less than that of the moon; for, observe, that the tides rise in consequence of the moon attracting one part of the waters more forcibly than another part. It is this inequality of attraction which produces full and ebb tides. Now the distance of the sun is so great, that the whole globe of the earth is comparatively but as a point; and the difference of its attraction for that part of the waters most under its influence, and that part least subject to it, is but trifling. No part of the waters will be much elevated above, or much depressed below, their general surface by its action. The sun has, however, a considerable effect on the tides; and increases or diminishes them as it acts in conjunction with, or in opposition to, the moon.

According to the calculations of the celebrated La Place, in his Mécanique Céleste the mean force of the sun in raising the tides is to the mean force of the moon as 1 to $1\frac{1}{2}$; and Emerson, in page 423, second edition of his Treatise on Fluxions, calculates the height of the solar tide to be 1.63 feet, and the height by the moon's influence to be 7.28 feet; consequently the height of their joint force to be 8.91 feet. The height here calculated is supposed to be at such places where the sun and moon are vertical, and also in the equinoctial. In places at a distance from the equator, the height will be less as the latitude is greater. Further, their height will also be less according to the sun and moon's declination from the equator.

From what has already been remarked regarding the tides, it is obvious that, when the moon is in Perigee, or at her nearest distance from the earth, she attracts strongest, and therefore raises the tides most. The contrary happens when she is in Apogee, or at her greatest distance from the earth, because of her weaker attraction. At new moon, when she is in conjunction with the sun, and at full moon, when they are in opposition, the tides are raised by the joint attraction of both luminaries, and therefore will produce the highest, or what are called Spring Tides. And Neap Tides are produced by the difference of their force when in quadrature. The Spring Tides take place about two days after full moon, and the Neap Tides about two days after the first and last quarter.

In consequence of the sun being nearer the earth at the beginning of the year than at any other time, his attraction will then be most powerful on the tides, and should the moon happen to be in Perigee, their joint effects will produce the greatest Spring Tides.

The mean duration of the ebb and flow is about 12 h. 25 m., that is, half the lunar day of 24 h. 50 m., the period elapsing between successive returns of the moon to the same point of the meridian. Thus the sea in every place undergoes a flux and reflux as often as the moon passes the meridian, whether superior or inferior of the place; that is to say, twice in 24 h. 50 m.

The following Tide Table is constructed on strict scientific principles, from the very accurate Tide Tables of J. W. Lublock, Esq., London (the Tide Table in the Nautical Almanac for 1857 is also calculated from the same Tables), and will be found to be as correct as the position of our river, with regard to its locality, the influence of the winds, and other diversified circumstances, either hasten or retard its natural current. Hence the time of the Tide by observation may not at all times correspond precisely with the time found in the Table.

These tables are calculated for mean time, or the time shown by a well-regulated clock, reckoning from noon of each day. The Moon's phases are calculated to civil time. The civil day begins at midnight.

TIDE TABLE OF SOME OF THE PRINCIPAL PORTS IN ENGLAND, SCOTLAND, AND IRELAND.

The times of High Water at full and change of the moon, from which the following equations are calculated, are reckoned from apparent noon. They represent the actual times of High Water when the moon passes the meridian at the same time as the sun, or the intervals between the times of transit of the moon and the times of High Water on full and change days. With which, and the equation of time, the times of High Water at all the Ports here given will be obtained by addition, as here annexed.

ECLIPSES OF THE SUN, 1864.

In the year 1864 there will be two Eclipses, both of the Sun.

I.—An Eclipse of the Sun, May 5, begins on the earth generally, May 5, at 9 h. 30 m. P.M. mean time at Greenwich, in latitude $51^{\circ} 23' S.$, longitude $126^{\circ} 56' E.$

II.—An angular Eclipse of the Sun, invisible at Greenwich, begins on the earth generally, October 30, 0 h. 31 m. P.M., in latitude $6^{\circ} 25' N.$, longitude $100^{\circ} 14' W.$

NOTICE.

The latitude of Glasgow is $55^{\circ} 52'$, and the longitude $4^{\circ} 16'$ west of Greenwich, consequently there should be 17 minutes of difference of time between the clocks of Glasgow and the clocks of Greenwich, but the clocks of Glasgow are now adjusted to Greenwich mean time.

EXEMPLIFICATION AND CONSTRUCTION OF THE FOLLOWING TABLES.

TO FIND THE TIME OF HIGH WATER AT ANY PLACE IN THE GENERAL TIDE TABLE.

RULE.—To the time of high water at Glasgow on the given day, add or subtract the correction for the required place as stated in the table, and the time of high water will be obtained. When the sum of the correction, and of the time of high water in the table exceeds 12 hours, subtract 12 hours, and the remainder will be the time of high water in the morning or evening of the given day, as the column denotes; when the sum of the former quantities is less than 12 hours, this sum will be the time of high water required in the evening of the preceding day, or the morning of the given day, according as the column is marked morning or evening. Or the morning and the evening tides may be found thus:—If the morning tide be sought, and the sum be above 12 hours, take the time from Glasgow for the preceding evening, to which add the correction for the required place; from the sum subtract 12 hours, and the remainder is the morning tide at the place required. If the evening tide is wanted, and the sum exceed 12 hours, take the Glasgow morning tide for the given day, to which apply the correction for the required place, from the sum subtract 12 hours, and the remainder is the evening tide at the place required.

Required the time of high water at Peterhead, January 1, 1864.

Astronomical Seasons of the year 1864.—Spring begins, or the sun enters Aries, March 20, 8 h. 10 m. A.M.; summer begins, or the sun enters Cancer, June 21, 4 h. 52 m. A.M.; autumn begins, or the sun enters Libra, Sept. 22, 7 h. 16 m. P.M.; winter begins, or the sun enters Capricornus, Dec. 21, 1 h. 3 m. P.M.

On June 10, 1864, the sun's longitude is $79^{\circ} 47' 12''$; and the obliquity of ecliptic $23^{\circ} 27' 18''$; required the sun's declination at noon.

To the log. sine of the sun's longitude at noon, $79^{\circ} 47' 12''$,..... 9.993055Add the log. sine of the obliquity of ecliptic, $23^{\circ} 27' 18''$,..... 9.599914To the sine of the sun's declination, $23^{\circ} 3' 40''$,..... 9.592969

Required the time of the rising and setting of the sun at Glasgow, on June 10, 1864.

(INLAND BILL) DRAFT OR ORDER, after 10th October, 1853, for the payment of any sum of money to the bearer, or to order, on demand..... 1d.

And the following instruments shall be deemed and taken to be drafts or orders for the payment of money within the intent and meaning of this act, and of any act or acts relating to the stamp duties on bills of exchange, drafts, or orders, and shall be chargeable accordingly with the stamp duties imposed by this act, or any such act or acts, viz.:—

All documents or writings usually termed letters of credit, or whereby any person to whom any such document or writing is or is intended to be delivered or sent, shall be entitled, or be intended to be entitled, to have credit with, or in account with, or to draw upon any other person for, or to receive from such other person any sum of money therein mentioned.

Exemptions from the Duties on Drafts or Orders.—

All letters of credit, whether in sets or not, sent by persons in the United Kingdom to persons abroad, authorizing drafts on the United Kingdom.—16 and 17 Vict. c. 59.

DRAFT OR ORDER, after 24th May, 1858, for the payment of any sum of money to the bearer on demand, which being drawn upon any banker within 15 miles of the place where such draft or order is issued, was formerly exempt from stamp duty (21 Vict. c. 59)..... 1d.

All bills, drafts, or orders for the payment by any banker or person acting as a banker of any sum of money, though not made payable to the bearer or to order, and whether delivered to the payee or not; and all writings or documents, entitling or intended to entitle any person whatever to the payment from or by any banker, or person acting as a banker, of any sum of money, whether the person to whom payment is to be made shall be named or designated therein or not, or whether the same shall be delivered to him or not, shall respectively be deemed to be bills, drafts, or orders for the payment of money chargeable with stamp duty, as if the same had been made payable to bearer or to order. Provided always, that any one document or writing, although directing the payment of several sums of money to different persons, shall be chargeable with stamp duty as one order only. 23 Vict. c. 15.

Draft or order, writing or document, for the payment, or for entitling any person to the payment, by or through any banker, of any sum of money, sent or delivered to the banker and not to the person to whom payment is to be made, or any person on his behalf, to be held not to have been and not to be chargeable with any higher stamp duty than one penny, although payable at any time after date. Duty may be denoted by adhesive stamp, to be cancelled as in the case of a draft on demand. 23 and 24 Vict. c. 111, § 17.

Exemptions.—Any draft, or order drawn by any banker upon any other banker, not payable to bearer or to order, and used solely for the purpose of settling or clearing any account between such bankers.

Any letter written by a banker to any other banker, directing the payment of any sum of money, the same not being payable to bearer or to order, and such letter not being sent or delivered to the person to whom payment is to be made, or to any person on his behalf; and all warrants or orders for the payment of any annuity granted by the Commissioners for the Reduction of the National Debt, or for the payment of any dividend or interest on any share in the government or parliamentary stocks or funds; and all drafts or orders drawn by the Accountant General of the Court of Chancery in England or Ireland, shall be exempt from all stamp duty. 23 Vict. c. 15.

Note.—The Act, 17 and 18 Vict. c. 83, § 9,—referring to the English Act, 17 Geo. III. c. 30, and the Acts continuing the same, which make bills, &c., above 20s. and under £5, if not drawn in a particular way, invalid, and those below 20s., absolutely invalid, and not to the Scotch Act to the like effect, 8 and 9 Vict. c. 38, § 16 and 17,—provided that the said Act and the continuing Acts should be repealed, in so far as regards drafts on bankers for money held for the use of the drawer. And the Act 23 and 24 Vict. c. 111, § 19, now provides generally, without special reference to either the English or Scotch Acts, that drafts on a banker who shall bona fide hold money to or for the use of the party, payable to bearer or order on demand, of any sum less than 20s. shall be lawful. Do both the above provisions apply to Scotland, or only the latter? The Act 8 and 9 Vict. c. 38, § 20, provides that that Act shall not prohibit draft on a person's own banker for the payment of money to the use of such person.

N.B.—The duty of one penny on drafts or orders may be impressed on the paper, or an adhesive stamp may be affixed.—16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 3. The adhesive stamp may be either a receipt or draft stamp.—17 and 18 Vict. c. 83, § 10. Where an adhesive stamp is used, the maker of the draft to cancel the stamp by writing on it his name or initials. Penalty for omission, £10. Penalty for removing adhesive stamps or using them a second time, or doing any act to defraud of duty, £20.—16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 4 and 5. The payer of the draft or order shall, when he pays it, write the word "paid" on the stamp. Penalty for omission, £20. 23 Vict. c. 15, § 12. Banker may affix stamp to an unstamped draft and cancel it, and pay the draft, charge the person who ought to have paid it with the stamp, or deduct it from the sum. Draft goods, but not to relieve of penalty.—23 and 24 Vict. c. 111, § 18. INLAND BILL payable otherwise than on demand. PROMISSORY NOTE payable otherwise than to bearer on demand.

Note.—The duty on foreign bill drawn or endorsed out of the United Kingdom, payable on demand, is the same as on an inland bill payable otherwise than on demand. 23 Vict. c. 15. The word "endorsed" is held by the board of inland revenue to have no practical effect.—Times, 20th and 22nd April, 1860.

N.B.—The duties on foreign bills and notes, drawn and made out of the United Kingdom, are to be denoted by adhesive stamps. The holder to affix the adhesive stamp, if one not on it, before he negotiate it, and cancel the stamp by writing his name or the name of his firm and the date on it. If the bill or note be received by the holder with the adhesive stamp effectually obliterated, and purporting and appearing to be duly cancelled, the same, as regards such holder, shall be deemed to be so. If not cancelled, the holder may do so as if he were the person first negotiating the bill or note. On his doing so, the bill or note to be deemed duly stamped. The person who ought to have cancelled the stamp not relieved of any penalty incurred by not cancelling the same, 24 and 25 Vict. c. 91, § 33. The Act 23 Vict. c. 15, § 12, provides that the party paying the bill shall, when he does so, write the word "paid" upon the stamp. The amount of duty on the adhesive stamps is impressed on two parts. The board of inland revenue recommend that the cancellation should be on one of the parts, and the other left legible.

If a foreign bill payable abroad, and as to which the provision "drawn in sets of 3 or more" apply, shall be drawn in a single bill, the duty will be the same as on an inland bill, and if in a set of two, the duty on each will be the same as on an inland bill. This is in accordance with the opinion of the board of inland revenue (see North British Daily Mail, 3rd November, 1854). But the board have given an opinion that a foreign bill drawn abroad and payable in this country in duplicate or triplicate only represents one transaction, and is liable to the duty on one inland bill of the same amount; that is, if one of the parts have the full duty, the others may be unstamped (see Times, 6th November, 1854). The schedule of the act does not provide for such a bill being drawn in sets. Bills bearing to be drawn out of the United Kingdom are to be deemed foreign bills so drawn, although they may in reality be drawn in the United Kingdom, 17 and 18 Vict. c. 83, § 4. A person in the United Kingdom drawing and issuing a bill payable out of the United Kingdom in a set, must draw the whole set, and a person transferring or negotiating such bill must transfer and deliver, stamped, the whole number of the set. Penalty, £100. A person taking such bill must get the whole set stamped, otherwise he cannot recover on it, or make it available, ib. § 6. This applies only to bills drawn within and payable out of the United Kingdom.

INLAND BILL, DRAFT, OR ORDER for the payment of any sum of money, though not made payable to the bearer, or to order, if the same shall be delivered to the payee, or some person on his or her behalf, the same duty as on a bill of exchange for the like sum, payable to bearer or order.

INLAND BILL, DRAFT, OR ORDER for the payment of any sum of money, weekly, monthly, or at any other stated periods, if made payable to the bearer, or to order, or if delivered to the payee, or some person on his or her behalf, where the total amount of the money thereby made payable shall be specified therein, or can be ascertained therefrom, or shall be indefinite, the same duty as on a bill payable to bearer or order on demand.

PROMISSORY NOTE for the payment of any sum of money by instalments, or for the payment of several sums of money at different days or times, so that the whole of the money to be paid shall be definite and certain, the same duty as on a promissory note, payable otherwise than to the bearer on demand, for a sum equal to the whole amount of the money to be paid.

MANDATE. See PROXY.

MARRIAGE CONTRACT. The leading head under which marriage contracts are chargeable is "Settlement." By the statutory note under this head, it is provided that instruments, containing settlements of lands or other property, or other matter or thing, besides the settlement of money or stock, shall be chargeable with duty in respect of such, as if contained in a separate deed. A marriage contract may therefore be liable to a number of different duties. If definite and certain sums, and shares of stocks, are settled so as an interest to any extent shall be given, which shall certainly take effect, and not be altogether contingent, these are liable to the ad valorem settlement duty. If an annuity is provided to the widows or others, such is liable to bond of annuity stamp duty. Obligations to pay sums to widow, such as for mournings, are liable to ad valorem bond duty. All settlements of property, or other matters not liable to specific duty, will be covered by one general deed duty, over and above the other duties. An obligation by the husband, to pay sums to the trustees for the children, if any, would be liable to the bond duty, not settlement duty, being contingent.

RECEIPTS for money amounting to £2 or upwards, 1d. The following provisions as to what shall be deemed a receipt, and the exemptions from receipt duty by 55 Geo. III., c. 184, are still in force.

Any note, memorandum, or writing whatever, given upon the payment of money, whether signed or not, shall be a receipt if it shall import or signify that any sum of money, debt, or demand, or any part thereof amounting to £2 or upwards, has been paid or settled; and like documents given upon payment by bills, drafts, promissory notes, or other securities for money, are also receipts.

According to decisions a simple acknowledgment of a sum of money in loan, or of the correctness of a debt, or of a deposit of money, is not liable to stamp-duty, either as a receipt or promissory note. The judges held it essential to render a receipt liable to duty that something formerly due had been discharged. On this principle a receipt for a sum of money as a donation to a religious or charitable purpose, not being any thing formerly due, would not be liable. The Board of Inland Revenue have intimated that they are to regard such receipts as exempted.

Among the exemptions from receipt duty are—

Receipts written on promissory notes, bills, drafts, or orders for the payment of money, duly stamped. Receipts written on any bond, mortgage, or other security, or any conveyance, deed or instrument whatever, duly stamped, acknowledging the receipt of the consideration money therein expressed, or the receipt of any principal money, interest, or annuity thereby secured.

INVENTORY DUTY.

I. PERSONAL ESTATE:—

All and every person who shall, as executors or otherwise, enter upon the possession or management of any personal or movable estate in Scotland of any deceased person, in whole or in part, shall, within six months, exhibit upon oath in the Commissary Court an inventory, duly stamped, of all the personal or movable estate and effects of the deceased. The inventory and testamentary writings left by the deceased, if any, shall be recorded in the books of the said court. (48 Geo. III c. 149, § 38.)

Inventories and relative testamentary writings are to be given up and recorded in, and confirmations granted by, the Commissary Court of the county wherein the deceased died domiciled; and in the case of persons dying forth of Scotland, or without any fixed or known domicile, having personal property in Scotland, the Commissary Court of Edinburgh. (21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, § 3 and 8.)

Oaths and affirmations on inventories of personal estates, to be given up and recorded in any Commissary Court, may be taken either before the commissary or his depute, or the commissary-clerk or his depute, or before any commissioner appointed by the commissary, or before any magistrate or justice of the peace within the United Kingdom or the Colonies, or any British consul. (21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, § 11.)

If the deceased person died domiciled in Scotland, it shall be competent to include in the inventory of the personal estate in Scotland, the personal estate in England and Ireland. The estate in England and Ireland shall be separately stated in the inventory, and the inventory shall be stamped corresponding to the entire value of the estate situated within the United Kingdom. If confirmation be required, the domicile must be proved, and the commissary must find it to be in Scotland. Confirmation, in which shall be included personal estate in England and Ireland, on being produced in the principal Probate Court in England, and the Court of Probate in Dublin, and a copy thereof deposited with the registrar, together with a copy of the interlocutor of the commissary finding that the deceased died domiciled in Scotland, is to be returned sealed, and is thereafter to have the same force and effect in England and Ireland, as if probate or letters of Administration had been granted by these courts. (21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, § 9, 12, and 13.)

The provisions of the act are merely permissive to pay inventory duty on the whole personal estate in Great Britain and Ireland where the deceased died in Scotland, and the like provisions as to the payment of probate and administration duty where the deceased died domiciled in England and Ireland. It is therefore still competent to pay inventory duty on the estate situated in Scotland, and probate or administration duty in respect of the Estate in England and Ireland. In the case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom having personal estate situated in Scotland, this mode of paying the duty must be followed, as there is no provision for payment of stamp-duty, in respect of the personal estate in England or Ireland on the inventory, or obtaining confirmation in respect thereof.

If there be any omission in the inventory inferring payment of further duty, an additional inventory of such is required to be exhibited by 48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38; and § 40 provides that the same shall also specify the amount or value of the estate and effects of the same person comprised in the former inventory. By 16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8, such additional inventory shall be chargeable only with such amount of stamp-duty as, together with the stamp-duty charged upon the former duly stamped inventory of the estate and effects of the same deceased person, shall make up the full amount of stamp-duty, in respect of the total amount of all the estate and effects of the deceased specified in the said additional and any such former inventory. If the estate shall be over-estimated, or something improperly included in the inventory, an inventory on a stamp corresponding to the value must be exhibited, and the original inventory will be allowed on affidavit as a spoiled stamp, within six months of the recording of the second inventory,

Personal estate which a person, dying after 3rd April, 1860, shall have disposed of by will, under any authority enabling such person to dispose of the same as he shall think fit, shall be deemed personal or movable estate of the person so dying, for the purpose of payment of inventory, probate, or administration duty, 23 Vict. 15, § 4. The duties to be charged on the property, in respect of which the same are payable, and to be paid thereout by the trustees or owners thereof to the executor.

Indian Government Promissory Notes, and certificates issued, or stock in lieu thereof, being assets of a deceased person, the interest of which shall be payable in London, registered in London, or en-faced in India for the purpose of such registration before the death of the owner; also Indian Government Promissory Notes, with coupons attached, in the same circumstances as to registration, and certificates issued, or stock created in lieu thereof, shall be personal estate, and bona notabilia in England of the deceased person (23 Vict. c. 5, § 1), and liable to inventory, probate, or administration duty.

"The inventory and additional inventory of any person deceased, required to be exhibited and recorded in the proper Commissary Court in Scotland, shall be stamped with duty according to the value of the property contained therein at the time they shall be respectively sworn to, including the proceeds accrued thereon down to that time; and the duty, or deficient duty, according to such value and proceeds, and interest thereon at the rate of five per centum per annum, shall be a debt to her Majesty by the person making oath to said inventory and additional inventory, and his heirs and successors; and if such inventory and additional inventory shall not be exhibited and recorded, the inventory-duty on all the personal or movable estate and effects of the deceased, and interest thereon at the rate of five per centum per annum from the expiry of the period of six months after the death of such deceased person, shall be payable and shall be a debt to her Majesty by the person who shall intrust with or enter upon the possession and management of such personal or movable estate and effects, or any part thereof, and his heirs and successors." (23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, § 5.)

II. MONEY SECURED ON HERITAGE, &c.

The Act 23 Vict. c. 15, § 6 (3rd April, 1860), declared that money secured on heritable property in Scotland, and money secured by Scotch bonds in favour of heirs and assignees, excluding executors, should be chargeable with inventory, probate, or administration duty.

The Act 23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, was passed to regulate the levying and collection of the said duty. Section first gives a description of the property which shall be liable to inventory-duty under the Act of 23 Vict. c. 15, and section 8 further explains what shall be subject to duty. Section 9 of the Act 23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, repeals the Act 23 Vict. c. 15, section 6, in so far as regards probate and administration duty being chargeable in respect of the property, so that now in all circumstances such property is liable to inventory-duty. Section 1 is in these terms—

"All money secured on heritable property in Scotland, and all money secured by Scottish bonds and other instruments, excluding executors, and all money secured by Scottish bonds and other instruments, the rights to which shall be taken excluding executors, constituting the succession, or part of the succession, of any person who shall have died on or after the 3rd day of April, 1860, shall be liable to inventory-duty under the said recited Act."

There are two modes of paying the duty provided for—23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, § 3 and 4—

1. By a "Special Inventory" of the property, to be lodged with the Solicitor of Inland Revenue at Edinburgh (a form of which, with relative oath, is given in the schedule to the Act), stamped according to the amount of property contained in it. The inventory stamp shall be testate or intestate according as the stamp on the inventory of the personal estate shall denote the testate or intestate rate of duty.

2. By adding the amount of the property to the inventory of the personal estate, and paying stamp-duty upon the aggregate amount.

This second mode will generally be the most advantageous for the tax payer, and will be followed when the interest in the heritable and movable estate is the same, or when the heir and executor can make an arrangement as to the payment of the duty. As to both modes of paying the duty, it is declared that the duty is ultimately to be borne by the parties proportionally according to their interests in the property.

The 5th sect. of 23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, provides, that the inventory-duty shall be payable on the property made liable by the Acts referred to, according to the value of such property at the time the inventory containing it shall be sworn to, including the proceeds accrued thereon down to that time.

It will be observed that the inventory-duty on money secured on heritage, &c., is limited to such property constituting the succession of a person who shall have died on or after the 3rd April, 1860 (23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, § 1); but the provision for valuing property at the date of the affidavit to the inventory, and including the proceeds down to that time, is retrospective and universal in its operation, applying to all inventories sworn to on or after that date without regard to the date of death.

III. GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

In the case of a person dying domiciled in Scotland, having personal property in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and also money secured on heritage, &c., duty in respect of the whole may be paid on the inventory required to be recorded in the Commissary Court; or inventory-duty may be paid on the personal property situated in Scotland, and duty may be paid on a "special inventory" of the money secured on the heritage, &c., and probate or administration may be obtained in England and Ireland in respect of the personal estate in these countries, and duty paid in respect of such on these instruments.

In case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom leaving personal estate in Scotland, England, and Ireland, an inventory must be given up in Scotland, probate or administration taken out in England and Ireland, and duty paid on such in respect of the property in each country.

RETURN OF INVENTORY DUTY.

The inventory duty and probate and administration duty are paid on the whole personal property, without deduction of debts; but the Act 5 and 6 Vict. c. 79, § 23, provides for a return being given on proof of the constitution and payment of the debts. This return must be claimed within three years, but the time will be prolonged on application to the Board of Inland Revenue. A return of the duty paid on heritable securities may also be made in certain circumstances. See 23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, § 4 and 6. No return to be granted in respect of a voluntary debt due from a person dying after 28th June, 1861, expressed to be payable on the death of such person, or payable under an instrument which shall not have been bona fide delivered to the donee three months before the death of such person. (24 and 25 Vict. c. 92, § 3.)

Grand-uncle or aunt, or descendant,	6 0
All other relations or strangers,	10 0

The husband or wife of the deceased is not chargeable with duty. If the legatee's husband or wife is of nearer consanguinity than the legatee, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51, § 11.)

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the personal or movable estate, or out of or charged upon the real or heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any estate which he has power to dispose of, or out of any monies to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's real or heritable estate, or any part thereof: Also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout) of the personal or movable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of any testamentary disposition, or upon a partial or total intestacy: And also for the clear residue of the moneys to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of any real or heritable estate, directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of by any will or testamentary instrument.

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May, 1853, are valued for legacy-duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act, 16 and 17 Vict. c. 51; and annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the tables annexed to the Legacy-Duty Act, 36 Geo. III. c. 52.

Duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee takes two or more legacies under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty, though each or either may be separately under that amount.

N.B.—Printed forms and regulations for payment of the legacy duties will be obtained gratis, on application at the Legacy Duty Office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh, and at the offices of the distributors of stamps in the country.

SUCCESSION DUTY, 16 and 17 Vict. c. 51.—The duty commenced on the death of persons dying after the 19th May, 1853, and seems to be imposed on all property, both heritable and movable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy—the duty imposed by the Legacy-Duty Acts.

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY is charged on the annual value, after allowance of the necessary outgoings (§ 22), as an annuity for the life of the successor (§ 21), which is to be valued by tables annexed to the act.

PERSONAL PROPERTY is liable to duty according to the value of the succession, and money charged on heritage—heritable securities—is chargeable as personality (§ 1).

Brothers and sisters of the father or mother of the predecessor and their descendants, £5 per cent.

The following are also exemptions from the succession duty:—

REGULATIONS AS TO EXCHANGING SPOILED STAMPS.

The Solicitor's Office, No. 5 in the Inland Revenue Office, is open for the allowance of spoiled stamps every Tuesday and Thursday, from twelve noon to two p.m. The distributors of stamps at the following places also receive spoiled stamps for allowance:—Aberdeen, Ayr, Banff, Cupar-Fife, Dumfries, Dundee, Elgin, Glasgow, Greenock, Inverness, Perth, and Wick.

A supply of forms of affidavits is kept by the solicitor and the above distributors, and claimants may attend at the solicitor's office, and have the affidavits filled up and taken; or they may get copies of the forms, and take the oath before a justice of the peace, and afterwards lodge the affidavits and the stamps with any of the above officers. If the claim be admitted, a ticket is issued, stating that application is to be made for the new stamps after Thursday se'ennight, and within six weeks from the date of the ticket. If not made within that time the claim will be forfeited.

The stamps, if belonging to parties resident in Edinburgh, or within ten miles thereof, must be presented for allowance within six months after being signed in the case of executed instruments, and six months after being spoiled in the case of unexecuted instruments. If beyond that distance, six months in the former, and twelve months in the latter case.

Bills and notes delivered to payees, or negotiated or issued in any way, and bills accepted or tendered for acceptance, cannot be exchanged, unless a new bill be produced, in all respects the same, excepting the correction of the error.

As to the exchange of sea policies of insurance, see 54 Geo. III. c. 133.

Unsigned instruments are allowed, if inadvertently spoiled. Signed, if void in law from the beginning; from error or mistake, unfit for the purpose originally intended; from death or refusal to sign, of any person whose signature is necessary; from the want of the signature of some material and necessary party; from refusal to act under, or from non-acceptance—they shall be unfit for or fail of the purpose intended; or if the transaction be carried through by another instrument duly stamped.—See 53 Geo. III. c. 108. In the case of transfers of stock signed by the seller alone, and other instruments if by one party, new deeds require to be produced to the proper officer of stamps, who, as to transfers, is instructed to certify in what particulars they differ from those spoiled.

Stamps of a different description may be obtained for any stamp spoiled if it be of the value of £6 or upwards. Application for this purpose to the commissioners of Inland Revenue should be lodged with the affidavit. The commissioners, by 3rd and 4th Will. c. 97, sect. 19, may, if in their discretion they think fit, refund in money the amount of spoiled stamps. They are also authorized to repay the amount of stamps for which the possessor has no immediate use, if applied for within three months after being purchased. In both cases is deducted the per centage allowed by law on the purchase of stamps.

STAMPING DEEDS AFTER BEING SIGNED.

Beyond Twelve Months.—The duty, or deficiency of duty, shall be due and payable to her Majesty, and also the penalty of £10. The deed will only be stamped on payment of the whole or (as the case may be) the deficiency of the stamp-duty remaining payable on it, and, over and above such duty, a penalty of £10, and if the whole amount of said duty or deficiency shall exceed £10, then in addition to said duty and penalty, there shall be paid, by way of additional penalty, interest on the duty or deficiency at the rate of 5 per cent. from the date or first signing of the deed; but such interest shall not exceed the amount of the said duty or deficiency of duty.

Within Twelve Months.—If the deed shall be brought to the commissioners of Inland Revenue within twelve months after the first signing or executing, in order to be stamped, it may be stamped without payment of the penalty, or on payment only of a portion thereof, provided it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the commissioners that the deed was not duly stamped previously to being signed, by reason of accident, mistake, inadvertency, or urgent necessity, and without any wilful design to evade or delay the payment of duty.—13 and 14 Vict. c. 97, § 12.

A broad.—If the deed shall be executed by any party abroad, it may be stamped without any penalty, if brought to be so within two calendar months from the time of being received in the kingdom, upon proof of the facts to the satisfaction of the commissioners.—13 and 14 Vict. c. 97, § 13.

Adhesive Stamps.—Where adhesive stamp may be affixed to any instrument, an officer of Inland Revenue, authorized by the commissioners, may, on the instrument being produced to him, affix and cancel the adhesive stamp. The instrument shall thereupon be deemed sufficiently stamped. But this not to apply to instruments not allowed to be stamped after being made, signed, or issued, nor to instruments after the expiration of the period limited for stamping them. The penalty required to be paid on stamping of the instrument not affected by this provision. (24 and 25 Vict. c. 91, § 32.)

N.B.—Instruments to have stamps impressed are received at the solicitor's office, Inland Revenue, Waterloo Place, Edinburgh, to be stamped, if within two months of the first date (the solicitor may in certain circumstances receive them within two months of the last date), on payment of the duty; if beyond that date, on payment of the duty and penalty. Parties, on applying, will be furnished with a schedule, and, after being filled up, it is to be presented, along with the instrument, at the solicitor's office, No. 5, Inland Revenue, between 10 and 12 o'clock, on Mondays and Wednesdays only. The amount of duty wished to be impressed on the instrument is to be inserted by the applicant before being presented at the solicitor's office; and, afterwards, he pay it, and the penalty, if any, to the cashier, No. 3, lobby.

DOUBTS AS TO THE SUFFICIENCY OF STAMPS MAY BE REMOVED.

The opinion of the commissioners of Inland Revenue as to the duty to which a deed, whether previously stamped or otherwise, is chargeable, may be obtained on the deed being presented, and a fee of 10s. paid. The duty or insufficient duty which the commissioners may assess, and the penalty, if any, being paid, they shall stamp the deed with the duty so paid, and thereupon, and also in the case of the deed being previously sufficiently stamped, shall also impress the deed with a particular stamp to be provided for the purpose. The deed shall then be received in evidence notwithstanding any objection to it as insufficiently stamped. The provision does not apply to bonds or mortgages for unlimited amounts, nor instruments after being signed, prohibited from being stamped. The opinion of the commissioners may be appealed against to the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, on the stamp duties assessed being paid, and 40s. for costs being deposited. (13 and 14 Vict. c. 97, § 14 and 15.) The commissioners may also adjudge on deeds not liable to any stamp-duty; and if any duty is assessed the party may appeal. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 13.)

N.B.—Instruments are received for adjudication at the solicitor's office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh, on the same conditions as to duty and penalty as instruments to be stamped merely (see above). The mode of proceeding is as follows:—The sum of ten shillings for the adjudication stamp is first to be paid to the cashier, No. 3, lobby. Then the schedule (the duty to be impressed of course not being inserted in the schedule), the instrument after execution, and a copy of it, written on foolscap paper, omitting the bounding description of lands, &c., and having appended to it a table giving the substance of the clauses and provisions, particularly dates and sums, and a reference to the page of the copy on which each commences, are to be left at the solicitor's office, No. 5, on Mondays and Wednesdays, between 10 and 12 o'clock only. Between 10 and 12 o'clock on the Thursday following, a party, who can give explanation, must call on the chief clerk of the solicitor's department, No. 6; and he should be prepared to pay the proper duty, and penalty, if any, to the cashier, No. 3, lobby.

DUPPLICATES OR COUNTERPARTS.

Duplicates or counterparts of instruments requiring to be impressed with the denoting stamp to render them valid, may be lodged at the solicitor's office, No. 5, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh, between 10 and 12 o'clock on Mondays and Wednesdays only. A transmission of them is made once a week to the head office. The principal instrument, as well as the duplicate, must be lodged, and both must appear to be properly stamped, otherwise they will not be transmitted.

Mem.—The revenue takes no risk of loss or injury connected with the custody or carriage of the instruments received and transmitted to be stamped.
